

Mrs. LePard's K News

OCT. 20, 2016

THIS WEEK.....

In reader's workshop we learning how to read books with a partner. We have learned how to read privately (back to back) and how to read EEKK! (elbow to elbow, knee to knee). We have learned that we can read the same book at the same time or we can take turns...I read a page/you read a page or I read a book/you read a book.

In writer's workshop, we continue to write stories about ourselves. We are working on doing our best illustrating by using our shapes to draw pictures with details. We are also doing our best to stretch out words to tell the story. We do this by labeling the picture and adding a sentence.

In math, we are beginning to learn addition and subtraction skills. We use our fingers or pictures to tell a story and solve the problem.

We practiced writing Pp the "school way". Our popcorn words so far this year are:
